Sir:

REMARKS

On July 1, 2008 I contacted the PCT Help Desk to inquire why the Official Filing Receipt had not as yet been received for the subject application. We were advised by Ms. Tamara Graysay, the person answering the phone at the Help Desk, that a Notification of Missing Requirements had been mailed to Abelman, Frayne & Schwab on January 22, 2008. We advised Ms. Graysay that such Notification had never been received by our office, and she kindly offered to send the Notification by facsimile.

Upon receipt of the Notification, I immediately gave it to Mary Washburn, a Docket Clerk in our office. Mrs. Washburn checked her electronic/computer records as well as her written records and determined that such Notification had never previously been received and/or entered. Mrs. Washburn immediately entered the Notification in the Firm's electronic records and also on the file jacket of the application noting that it had first been received in our offices on July 1, 2008.

Enclosed herewith is a Declaration by Mrs. Washburn that she, or the other Docket Clerk, Steven Ortiz, upon the receipt of such a Notification would promptly enter it into our computer docketing records and also on the file jacket of the application in question. Thereafter, the Notification and the file would be given to the individual attorney who was responsible for the application for forwarding to the client to request that the Declaration be executed by the inventor. If the executed Declaration was already in the file, it would have been filed directly in the U.S. Patent Office.

It is respectfully submitted that the need for a four month extension and payment of the $820.00 was unavoidable since the Notification was not received in the offices of Abelman, Frayne & Schwab, notwithstanding that our customary procedure for handling such Notifications was followed.

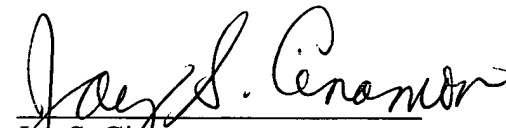

Applicant respectfully petitions that the $820.00 extension fee payment be refunded and credited to our Deposit Account No. 01.0035.

Please charge any fees which may be due and which have not been submitted herewith to our Deposit Account No. 01-0035.

Respectfully submitted,

ABELMAN, FRAYNE & SCHWAB
